

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SPEECH & DEBATE CAMP

THE PROSPEROUS
LIVING SERIES

PROSPERITY EDUCATION ROUTE'S SPEECH & DEBATE CAMP

THE PROBLEM

More than 40% of Chinese students drop out of US universities before they graduate.

Why? Language and social skills are the #1 reason for educational failure.

THE SOLUTION

Being persuasive and effectively convincing others is a cultural skill. Public Speaking skills can be used for a lifetime of success: in academic and professional presentations, personal relationships, sales, work meetings, community activities, and every other area of your life!

PER's Speech and Debate Camp is the opportunity of a lifetime! The chance to get professional training in champion-level speech and debate skills from National College Champions! Four Days of 100% English coaching by gold-medal winning college debaters and professional public speakers.

"I consider my training in speech and debate the reason for all of my later success in life." Principle, Charter Entrepreneur School.

"Debate and public speaking were the foundations for my success in college and business and language learning." CEO, PhD.

BENEFITS

National Championship Speech and Debate Camp provides students with personalized training from professional award winning teachers—teachers that have years of experience both performing themselves and helping students perform their best in competitive environments.

Speech and Debate skills are the keys to success in both school and work, especially in international settings that demand an aggressive, professional, logical presentation of one's self and one's content. Speech and Debate skills are the confidence-building foundations necessary for future success in every aspect of life.

Students that complete the National Championship Speech and Debate Camp report that they have more confidence in class, can organize and present more effectively, speak better in contentious situations, and WIN AWARDS!

PER'S NATIONAL CHAMPION SPEECH AND DEBATE TEAM

David A. Dayton, Ph.D.

David Dayton is currently an Adjunct Business Professor at UVU and a Corporate Trainer specializing in teaching cross-cultural communications and organizational anthropology. He leads PER's National Champion Speech and Debate program and regularly conducts training camps in China and the United States.

David was a Utah High School State Champion in Individual Debate and won multiple awards including a scholarship to the top speech and debate college in the U.S. He won more than 50 awards in 5 different types of Speech and Debate including one gold medal, three silver medals and a bronze medal at the College National Championships.

David has taught debate at two high schools, leading both teams to their best-to-date records, and received a National Debate Coaches recognition award two times. As an award-winning coach and public speaker, David has taught hundreds of classes and given hundreds of presentations for companies, families, universities, governments, schools, churches, and children's groups in six different countries, and in three different languages.

David has a PhD (abd) in Global Sociocultural Studies and conducts ethnographic research into global Chinese corporate behavior. He also has two Master's Degrees, one in Asian Studies and another in Southeast Asian Cultural Anthropology. He speaks Thai and Mandarin and is an accomplished triathlete. He and his wife Jessica are the parents of 6 children, two of whom are in college, one in the U.S. Army, and three in Junior and Senior High schools.

Krista Kasey

Krista is a gifted performer, actress and an award-winning public speaker who has starred in plays in community and university theaters. She is a personable teacher, a professional editor with a degree in Communications & Journalism, and a mother of four children.

Krista was a National High School Championship speaker and award winner in multiple events. As a member of the top national college Speech and Debate Team she won scores of regional and national awards and was a College Nationals gold medal winner. She was awarded College Freshman of the Year for her accomplishments in Speech and Debate and Acting.

Krista has taught ESL, college-level English, worked as an editor and coached graduate students in China and Taiwan. She has worked as a technical business editor and done contracted work for websites, master's theses and graduate school applications. She has also written multiple short stories for children, including a treatment for animation. She has tutored learning disabled children, prepared Chinese students for college exams, taught at Utah's top charter school, and has recently helped found a new charter school based on Montessori and entrepreneurship principles.

Thomas Martin, MBA

Tom is a successful international businessman, an MBA and has decades of professional experience in sales and presentations around the world. Tom has taught High School Debate and is a highly sought-after judge for High School Debate tournaments. He also taught professional presentation courses for China's Ocean Shipping Company in Qingdao, China and courses on Negotiation and Advertising at National Chiayi University in Taiwan.

Tom was Captain of the Debate Team and President of the Speech Club and won over 30 trophies in Utah High School Debate including Debate State Champion. He was awarded a scholarship to the number one college Speech and Debate program in the United States where he won over 50 awards in Team Debate, Lincoln-Douglas Debate, Extemporaneous Speaking, Informative Speaking, and Impromptu. He was College Nationals gold medal winner in both Team Debate and in Individual Debate, and a bronze medal winner in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Collette Lister

Colette Litster is a multiple-award winning speech and debate champion. She was a scholarship member of the championship college speech and debate team in the United States and a multi-tournament champion in Team Debate, Extemporaneous Speaking, and After Dinner Speaking.

Colette participated on the multi-championship winning team and Lincoln-Douglas Debater in high school and was also a Utah State finalist in Foreign Extemporaneous Speaking.

For twenty years Colette has been a debate coach at Pineview, Snow Canyon, and Carbon High Schools. During these years she personally helped several students win state championships in debate and speaking events.

Jonathan Sherman, MS, LMFT

Jonathan is a relationship strategist and a sought-after speaker. For 25 years he has trained micro-organizations (such as marriages and families) and macro-organizations (such as corporations, educational entities, and government agencies) how to communicate, resolve conflict, develop emotional intelligence, and improve their relationships at work and at home.

He has taught over 500 presentations in the community, corporate, and professional sectors, created The Relationship Mastery Series, and has written hundreds of articles. Jonathan is the President of MarriageEnvy, an international private practice and speaking firm. Previously, he was the Director of Training and Development for PeopleSmarts—a leadership development company specializing in emotional intelligence (EQ). He works with school districts and educators in creating effective solutions to difficult behavioral and emotional problems with their students via conducting teacher training, parent education, and student assemblies on bullying prevention and intervention and other topics such as the popular Parenting with Love & Logic curriculum. Previously, he was the Youth Substance Abuse Coordinator for Valley Mental Health, and an instructor for the State of Utah's Shared Parenting Course for Divorcing Parents. He was awarded the Outstanding Education Award by The Utah Behavioral Healthcare Network for "recognition of outstanding efforts in presenting the public with accurate, meaningful and current information about mental illness." Further, he has been nominated for the WEGO Health Activist Award.

Jonathan did his undergraduate work in Family Sciences at Brigham Young University and his master's work in Marriage and Family Therapy at Northern Illinois University. He is married to a lovely and skilled husband trainer who has truly earned her keep. They live in eternal bliss (okay, fairly peaceably) with their four children in the Rocky Mountains of Utah.

Dr. V. James Strickler, Ph.D.

Dr. Strickler is a professor of Political Science with over 20 years of experience assisting hundreds of his students to gain admission to law schools and graduate studies programs.

He earned his Ph.D. from Stanford University, as well as a J.D. from Brigham Young University. He has taught courses at Stanford University, Valdosta State University, Utah State University, San Jose State University, and Brigham Young University, while publishing numerous scholarly works.

Dr. Strickler and his wife Kathleen are the parents of eight children. His oldest children have each graduated from high school at the age of 16, while earning highest academic honors. They have also been recognized as National Merit Scholars and by the State of Georgia as Georgia Scholars. Each has been recruited by Harvard University, Stanford University, and Princeton University and received numerous scholarship offers.
